

Gulf Finance House Holds Exclusive ‘Kids’ day at Work’

Children have a glimpse of parents’ workplace and walk away with bags full of goodies

Manama, Kingdom of Bahrain 18 July 2012 – Gulf Finance House BSC (GFH or the Bank), the Bahrain-based Islamic investment bank, held an exclusive ‘Kids Day at Work’ for its staff, yesterday. The children were given the opportunity to accompany their parents to work. The aim of the program was to give the children the occasion to come and see what their parents do at work everyday. During the event, the children were divided into groups and given a tour of the different departments before they were taken to a specially decorated designated play area where a variety of fun-filled exciting programmes were organized. It was a memorable day that made a lasting impression and was enjoyed by all. The young guests walked away with bags full of goodies.

-ends-

About Gulf Finance House

Since its establishment in 1999, Bahrain based Gulf Finance House (GFH) has been a key contributor in the development of regional Islamic financial institutions and infrastructure projects across the Middle East. Its shares are listed on the Kuwait Stock Exchange, the Bahraini Stock Exchange, the Dubai Financial Market and the London Stock Exchange in the form of a GDR. It has been responsible for the creation of leading Middle Eastern financial institutions such as First Energy Bank, QInvest, and Khaleeji Commercial Bank. In addition, GFH has created a wide range of significant economic infrastructure projects across the MENA region and beyond.

For further information please contact:

Amal Turki
Head of Corporate Communications
Gulf Finance House B.S.C.
Tel: +973 17538538
Email: aturki@gfh.com
Website: www.gfh.com